

25th February 2019

Dear Parents & Guardians,

Bukit Timah Campus Book Week: 4-8 March

At Chatsworth we strive to develop our students' literacy and to encourage a love of reading. In pursuit of these aims secondary students will be celebrating the written word during Book Week March 4-8. We have a load of special activities planned across all disciplines to show that reading is not confined to language and literature classes.

Here are some highlights:

Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday
World Stories in the News Students will look at current affairs in all disciplines	This Book is PJammin' Free pajama dress day Students will share stories with Primary Students as well as participate in DEAR (Drop Everything and Read!)	6 Word Stories 6 Parts to a Story 6th of March	One World, Different Stories Students will look at folklore and picture books that support the concepts they are studying	Character Day Students and teachers are encouraged to dress as a favorite book Character. Prizes will be awarded!!
Door Decorating Competition		Book Brackets: Students vote for the top book at Chatsworth!	Book Week Assembly 12:00	Character Parade 9:00
	Visiting Author: Maureen Yeo How to be hilarious Y6,7,8	Visiting Author: Charlene Shepherson Poetry and Identity Y7,8,9	Visiting Author: Cyril Wong Y10,11,12

We thank you for your continued support in encouraging our students to read.

Joyce Miller

Librarian
 jmiller@chatworth.com.sg

Iain Hudson

Head of English Language and Literature
 ihudson@chatworth.com.sg